

Coast to Coast BURNIE

Green Team cleans up

A BURNIE school has shown that you can make money and save the environment at the same time.

With the help of Queensland-based company The Fundraising Group, Leighland Christian School recently raised $740 for the campaign Green up, Clean up.

The newly launched program focused on seed planting and a rubbish clean up to inspire ongoing eco-friendly action within the community.

Leighland Christian School dean of primary Sue-anne Beaumont teamed up with Katherine Smith, of The Fundraising Group, the student representative group and the green team to run the event.

Ms Beaumont said the school was extremely proud of the way the students rallied behind the fundraiser.

"Thanks to their enthusiasm and hard work, extra funds are now available to provide new resources at the school," she said.

Green Up, Clean Up was launched at the beginning of the year and Leighland Christian School was only the second school statewide to implement the scheme.

Helping look after the planet are Leighland Christian School Green Team members, (back from left) Beau Cotter, Corey Badcock, teachers aid Anne Goodwin, Kiana Lambie, Gabby Cotter, (front) Samuel Williams, Emily Steadman, Geordan Thurley, Brittany Clingeffer, Liam Hatten and Cougar Hyland. Picture: Ben Eyles.

Ms Beaumont said that Leighland Christian School would continue to involve itself in eco-friendly fundraisers.

— By ZACK RHODES
Work Experience Student